Spring Tea Success

This year's Annual Spring Tea was once again a great success. The number of people participating in this particular event was amazing. In all about 40 people helped out in some way and that doesn't even count those who brought guests and bought tickets. The workers made sandwiches under the direction of Jon Prill and Kathy Savorias. The tea and sandwich servers were led by Chris Reynolds and Marilyn Schroeder. Kathy Nelson took control of the kitchen. Katherine Jackson and Michele DaCosta ran the silent auction. Kathy Savorias made all the table decorations. Lyn Morander handled all the reservations, seating and money. A huge thank you goes to all who helped!

All Saints welcomes Lynn Swanson

On Sunday, June 3, All Saints' Cathedral welcomed Ms. Lynn Swanson as its summer organist for the 10:00 am service. She has also agreed to continue on the fall in the capacity of interim choir director.

Lynn is already known here at All Saints' through her position as the Executive Artistic Director Conductor of the Milwaukee Children's Choir (MCC), and director of their Voices of Eterna, Milwaukee Youth Chorale. The MCC is an artist-in-residence here at the cathedral. Several of their ensembles have occasionally helped provide musical leadership at services here.

Lynn is a versatile musician. Apart from directing choirs, she is also a trained organist. She holds a Master of Music Education in Choral Pedagogy from the University of Kansas and a Bachelor of Music in Organ Performance from Shorter University located in Rome, Georgia.

She has previously held the positions of Assistant Organist and Accompanist for the Choir of Christ the King Anglican Church in Frankfurt, Germany giving choral performances at the Notre-Dame Cathedral and American Cathedral in Paris and the Alte Nikolai Kirche in Frankfurt. During her tenure in Germany, she also served as Assistant Organist at St. Johann Kirche in Kronberg.

We are thankful that she made herself available during this time of transition here at All Saints'.

Newala Project updates

Sr. Debora CMM has been a midwife for the last eight years. She works in the Tanzanian Government Hospital in Newala town. As you can see, she has just completed an Ultrasound Technicians course at the Kilimanjaro Christian Medical Center in Moshi Tanzania. She had to wait for one year as there are only twelve students in the class. Traveling by bus is eight hours from Newala to Dar es Salaam and another ten hours to Moshi. Class and practical labs were given in a mix of English and Kiswahili. Now, Sr. Debora is back in Newala and will be able to apply her newly learned skills.

From Dr. Issa...

The Medical Assistant who has completed the course of medical assistant has already started working at Lulindi and the nurse has started working at Luatala so you can see the fruits of your great effort of improving Health services in our Diocese of Newala. (ASANTE SANAA) You will always be in our memories.

Dr. Mtumbuka is at Lulindi working and doing only the surgical emergencies but not the elective operations. He is also doing minor surgeries. A continuing project for St. Michael's Health Center in Lulindi involves getting the last ward refurbished. This will allow the Center to be certificated by the Tanzanian government and it will then be able to get government support.

HUNGER BOOK SALE

Everyone might be waiting for summer but members of the Book Sale committee are ready to hit the ground running. It seems like we say this every year, but we truly have more books than ever collected over the winter. Mark your calendars for the Great Hunger Book Sale, August 1 through August 6.

There are plenty of opportunities for everyone to assist with the sale. We start collecting and pricing books on June 17, Monday through Thursday, 9:00 am to 1:00 pm. We are approved for at least two Earn and Learn Workers through the mayor's youth employment program to assist with the heavy lifting. But anyone who has time to work during the summer, pricing and sorting, should sign up with a member of the committee. We work in the coolness of the basement, 9:00 am to 1:00 pm, Monday through Thursday. On the job training, entertainment and beverages are provided.

If you can't help during the day consider these suggestions:

- Send out postcards to all your friends who might have books to donate. Cards are available in the usual locations.
- Do you have access to good boxes? We need oodles of paper sized boxes. Bring them to church.
- Clean off you own bookshelves and bring donations to church.
- Wear your Hunger Book Sale T-shirt around town. (Let Suzanne Cornell know if you need a shirt.)
- Post flyers at work or around town.

Watch for the sign-up sheets for setting up and actually working the sale; they will be out in mid-July. The Hunger Book Sale is truly an all-parish event, and we need everyone's help and prayers for a successful sale. If you have any questions about Book Sale, ask one of the committee chairs. Thank you!

Corn Roast at the Book Sale

On August 4 from 11:00 am - 4:00 pm, the Hospitality Committee will be hosting a Corn Roast on the Lawn. We will be selling corn on the cob with various fixings – drawn butter, mayonnaise, salt, pepper, cayenne, etc. as well as lemonade, canned soda, and bottled water.

If anyone knows of a local farmer where we can purchase the corn directly, please let us know!

We realize that this is a very busy time, but if there are any volunteers to help out with the Corn Roast, please contact Jon Prill @jlprill65@gmail.com. Thanks in advance for your help!

TROWELS UP!

GARTHLINGS READY FOR ANOTHER SEASON

The All Saints volunteer gardening crew assembled at the end of May to start its work season. Grumbling about the length and harshness of the winter was to be expected, but our hardy horticulturalists will mush on to keep the Garth in shape as our welcome mat to the world. Despite the long, cool spring (or perhaps because of it) and worse-than-usual snow plow damage, the Garth has been lush, green and gorgeous even before the crew started its summer ministrations. In a few weeks, it will be GLORIOUS!

Contributions to the Garden Fund at this time are most welcome. You will find our green envelopes on the table in the narthex and on the cabinet outside the sacristy. Please notate checks "Garden Fund" on the memo line of your check. Donations cover the cost of plants, mulch, and tools and professional services we periodically engage to handle things like tree pruning.

3rd Annual Boat Tour

Save the Date!

The 3rd Annual Boat Tour on Milwaukee Boat Line will be held on Sunday, August 25, 2019.

Tickets are $25 which include a 90-minute History and Architecture tour as well as a meal of either a brat or hot dog, chips, and a soft drink.

Registration and further details coming soon.

A thought on flowers...

Please consider donating live plants for your Altar Flowers and Memorials in place of cut flowers. You can choose to take the plant home or donate it to the Garden Guild.

Some suggestions would be Gardenia Plants, Calla Lilies, Hibiscus Plants, Geraniums, Azaleas, Hydrangeas, or any other blooming annuals or perennials. This is a great way to support the Cathedral's Green Initiative and enhance our environment. Of course, cut flowers are beautiful but please consider these sustainable options. Thank you!

From the Dean's desk

From May 13-17, Dean Kevin Carroll attended the annual Festival of Homiletics conference in Minneapolis. This year's theme was "Preaching as Moral Imagination." The typical day included three worship services, each including a sermon. Generally, the person giving the sermon followed up with a lecture on some aspect of the sermon. Lectures varied in content from how the speaker crafted the sermon to the themes covered in the sermon.

Most of the preaching centered on social justice issues such as racism, intolerance, economic disparity, and immigration. In keeping with the theme, the presenters often called upon preachers to be a strong voice to counter the growing wave of growing intolerance and secularism.

The venues for the events were held in two historic downtown Minneapolis churches: Central Lutheran Church and Westminster Presbyterian Church. Each service included music ranging from contemporary to classic. This is the second time the Dean attended this conference. He said he finds great value in this particular conference. "Hearing outstanding preaching and attending the lectures helps me craft better sermons. I also enjoy spiritual enrichment during worship. For me, this conference is half-professional development, and half-retreat."

The Spring Tea

MAY 18, 2019

... (continued from cover) This was the first tea I did not attend. Somehow, I managed to double book myself for that day. As I watched all the Facebook posts, I could see that all the guests were impressed with the spread and since most of the workers in charge are still talking to me, it must not have been totally exhausting for them.

Although the net profit was down from previous years, the Spring Tea is still a fun event to host for everyone. I think it highlights our Cathedral and congregation in ways that differ from our other church events. The committee welcomes suggestions on ways to improve or add variety to our annual Spring Tea.

The fundraising committee has been very busy so far this spring; Chili Cook-Off, Lenten Fish Boil, Pancake Supper, and now the Spring Tea. The next event is the Rummage Sale, June 15, and ending with the Pig Roast on October 5th. With everyone's help, we should make our fundraising goal for the year.

The Saintry Readers

Explore interesting books

The Saintry Readers, the Cathedral's women's book group, invites you and your female friends to join us once a month to delve into a wide variety of books. We usually meet on the third Saturday of each month at 10 a.m. in the Conference Room (unless there is a conflict with another Cathedral activity). Here is what is in store for the next few months with comments from Amazon:

Sat. June 22 (Note change of date to 4th Saturday): Sacred & Profane by Faye Kellerman; presenter Sybil Rockwell; hostess Janice Prohazka. We have a change of pace with this top-rated Peter Decker murder mystery.

"Two human skeletons, charred beyond recognition, are identified by a forensic dentist as teenage girls--and for LA Police Detective, Peter Decker, the father of a sixteen-year-old daughter, vacation time is over. Throwing himself professionally and emotionally into the murder case, he launches a very personal investigation: a quest that pulls him deep into the crack dens of Hollywood Boulevard and painfully close to the children of the streets and a nightmare world he must make his own."

Sat., July 20: The Color of Water: A Black Man's Tribute to His White Mother by James McBride; presenter Karen Davison; hostess Chris Reynolds.

"Who is Ruth McBride Jordan? A self-declared 'light-skinned' woman is evasive about her ethnicity, yet steadfast in her love for her twelve black children. James McBride, journalist, musician, and son explores his mother's past, as well as his own upbringing and heritage." "In The Color of Water, McBride retraces his mother's footsteps and, through her searing and spirited voice, recreates her remarkable story. The daughter of a failed itinerant Orthodox rabbi, she was born Rachel Shilsky (actually Ruchel Dwara Zylska) in Poland on April 1, 1921. Fleeing pogroms, her family emigrated to America and ultimately settled in Suffolk, Virginia, a small town where anti-Semitism and racial tensions ran high."

Sat., August 20: The Elephant Whisperer: My Life with the Herd in the African Wild by Lawrence Anthony; presenter Miriam Stauff; hostess Carol Ketter.

"When South African conservationist Lawrence Anthony was asked to accept a herd of 'rogue' wild elephants on his Thula Thula game reserve in Zululand, his common sense told him to refuse. But he was the herd's last chance of survival: they would be killed if he wouldn't take them. As he battled to create a bond with the elephants, he came to realize that they had a great deal to teach him about life, loyalty, and freedom. . . .A heartwarming, exciting, funny, and sometimes sad account of Anthony's experiences with these huge yet sympathetic creatures."

Sat., September 21: Unbroken: A World War II Story of Survival, Resilience, and Redemption by Laura Hillenbrand; presenter Chris Reynolds; hostess Sue Cornell

This #1 New York Times bestseller recounts the life of Louis Zamperini, an incorrigible delinquent who channeled his defiance into running, discovering a prodigious talent that carried him to the 1936 Olympics. When WWII began, he became an airman. His plane was downed in 1943, and the book recounts his unbelievable survival, first aboard a life raft and then in Japanese concentration camps.

Wandering the garden...

Each spring, our own Liz Raasch can be found wandering through the wildflower garden just to the west of the cathedral doors. She is looking for the plants that her husband (the late Dean, Warren Raasch) and herself planted ten plus years ago. We still have Lenten Roses, Hepatica (or May flowers), Solomon's Seal, Bloodroot, and Mayapple in bloom. It's amazing!

New office administrator

Welcome our new office administrator, Daniel Koplitz. A native of Mosinee, WI, they moved to Milwaukee in 2014 to complete a baccalaureate degree in vocal performance from the University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee. During their studies, Daniel was a choral scholar here at All Saints' and premiered the role of the Angel in Joseph Kucharski's Easter play The Sepulchre. After graduation last May, Daniel began work with the Wauwatosa School of Music and Maestro Makers as a piano and voice instructor, formed the children's choir at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, and continued to develop the vocal early music ensemble they founded, APERI ANIMAM.

Daniel brings an eye for detail and design to the office here at All Saints'. They are currently in the process of developing updated service materials, a new website, and other graphic elements for the cathedral. They have a knack for social media management and organization, and we are thrilled to have them here at All Saints'.
